TEACHER DIRECTIONS

You can access this resource via Google Slides and Google Drive.

STEP 1:

You can access your resource by clicking here. Click MAKE A COPY.

Then, save your copy as “Digital Postcard” so that you can easily find your own copy of the resource.

STEP 2:

You can share this resource with your families. When you share it, make sure they have to make a copy of the resource, otherwise they will be editing your master copy. In Google Classroom, there is the option to “Make a copy for each student.”

If you aren't using Google Classroom, you can still share this with your students. When you click SHARE at the top right corner, change the settings to “anyone with the link can edit”. Copy the link. Once you paste it, change the end (edit?usp=sharing) to copy. This will force anyone who clicks the link to make a copy.

Then you can share it in emails to your families.
